

Science

How have plants/animals adapted to their environment?
Who was Charles Darwin?
What is evolution? What is natural selection?
What are fossils? How are they formed?
What can scientists learn by studying fossils?

Art

How do we create our own sculpture?
Use clay and other mouldable materials
How do we sculpture to show a human form?
Include texture that conveys feelings, expression or movement add materials to add interesting detail
Who is our sculpture influenced by?
Create original pieces that are influenced by studies of others

Geography

Where are the Galapogus Islands located?
Correctly use maps (including digital and ordinance), atlases and globes, and recognise what these do and don't tell you about life in a certain place
Why are the Galapogus islands unique?
Describe key features of a wide range of physical features (e.g. rivers, mountains, volcanoes, earthquakes, cities, rainforests).
Who is Mary Anning?

PE

Athletics
Rounders.

How Has Life Evolved?

English

Ruby Bridges

How have attitudes towards race evolved since 1960?

What is the difference between a biography and autobiography?

What is the purpose of a biography/autobiography?

Can you use the features of a biography/autobiography to write your own?

'Standing On The Shoulders of Giants'

Who was Charles Darwin?

Skellig

- First person narrative
- Writing for persuasion
- Setting description using senses & figurative language
- Write with suspense

Who was Alfred Russell Wallace?

MFL

Let's Celebrate

Music

Oliver with a Twist

LFL

TenTen

- Sharing Isn't Always Caring
- Cyberbullying
- Types of Abuse
- Impacted Lifestyles
- Making Good Choices
- Giving Assistance
- Reaching Out
- The World of Work
- Money and Me

RE - Dialogue and Encounter

- Understand what is meant by dialogue and encounter, especially in a religious context.
- Know that people of different faiths and beliefs can learn from one another.
- Recognise key teachings of the Church about respect for others, including those from different religions.
- Understand that Christians are called to build relationships rooted in love, justice, and peace.

Computing

Coding